Three questions

Q) Did the learned man win the reward?
If not, why?

A) No, the learned man didn't win the reward because their answers ~~were~~ varied and the king was not satisfied by the responses, rather he got confused by them.

Q) How did the king and the hermit helped the wounded man?

A) The king and the hermit removed the learned man's clothing. After that, they band a large wound in his stomach from which blood was flowing out. The king washed the wound and covered it with his handkerchief in order to and hermit's towel stop the bleeding. The king washed the wound. However, this didn't work so the king reblessed the wound. Then, the bleeding stopped and after a while the wounded man regained consciousness. This is how the king and the hermit helped the wounded man.

Q) Who was the bearded man? Why did he asked for the King's forgiveness?

A) The bearded man was an enemy of the king. The king had once put his brother to death and seized his property. Since then, the bearded man had decided to take revenge on the king.

The bearded man decided to kill the king when he would come back from Hermit's hut. However, when ~~all~~ lot of time passed and the king wasn't back, the bearded man came out of his hiding place and was attacked by the King's guard. Still somehow the bearded man ran and came to the king where the king helped him and took good care of him. This made the man realize that the king was a good person and that's why the bearded man asked for the king's forgiveness.

Q "The king forgave the bearded man." What did he do to show his forgiveness?

Ans The king forgave the bearded man and even promised him two things firstly, he promised that he would send servant and his own physician to look after him. Secondly, he promised to return the seized property to him.
